

Who will speak for me?

Ageing without Children

2nd national conference

26 January 2016: 9.45am - 4pm (coffee & registration from 9am)

Banqueting Suite, Leeds Civic Hall, Calverley Street, Leeds LS1 1UR

1.2 million people over 65 in the UK are without children. What are the implications for individuals, services for older people and wider society?

This conference, organised by Ageing without Children www.awoc.org in partnership with Leeds City Council and the Beth Johnson Foundation, considers this and hears directly from people who are Ageing without Children themselves. The conference will be chaired by Baroness Liz Barker and speakers include:

- Nicci Gerard, founder of John's Campaign www.johnscampaign.org.uk
- Leeds Healthwatch <http://www.healthwatchleeds.co.uk>
- Dr Robin Hadley
- Older people's advocacy alliance www.opaal.org.uk
- Blacks Solicitors www.lawblacks.com
- Jody Day, Gateway Women <http://gateway-women.com>

The conference will also see the launch of the "Our Voices" report detailing the thoughts & experiences of people Ageing without Children

The conference is aimed at people aged over 50 without children (by choice or not) and organisations working with older people.

AWOC Members £40 Members of the public £50 Organisations £65

To book: please go to <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/awoc-national-conference-tickets-19423197306>

Email awoc.conference@gmail.com Telephone 07874661374

